Welcome to The Mitre, Greenwich

Perched on a street corner situated close to the Cutty Sark, Royal Observatory and National Maritime Museum, The Mitre is the perfect setting for a laid-back yet distinctly memorable drinking and dining experience. Whether you're looking for a lazy lunch, family dinner or social eats and treats with friends, The Mitre offers tempting and flavoursome food, a diverse and explorative drinks menu and an authentic, homely atmosphere to suit all occasions.

You might want to extend your stay and take advantage of The Mitre's 24 stylish bedrooms – with its village vibe and proximity to public transport, the pub provides an excellent, off-the-beaten-track base for a trip to the capital.

Drinks

We offer a range of drinks options to suit all your needs, whether your joining us with a group of friends or have booked a private event upstairs.

FAQs

Will we be allowed to bring our own food and drinks?

We have a great range of both food and drinks menus available to suit all needs and therefore do not allow external catering with the exception of a celebration cake. Please let a member of our team know any specific requirements you have and we would be happy to help.

Will we be permitted to decorate the venue?

We do allow decorations, but we ask that these are taken down after your event and that no permanent fixings are used to display them.

Can we play our own music?

Yes we have the ability to plug in your own music from any device with an aux cable output. Let us know what you would like to bring and we can ensure this will work for you.
